PREFACE.

THE Library Catalogue has been prepared according to the rules of the Index Society, and consists of an Author-Catalogue and a Topographical Index. In the former, Societies are treated as Authors without any cross-reference from the place of publication. Periodicals are entered in alphabetical order. Anonymous works appear under the leading word of the title. The Pamphlets have been bound in separate volumes and classified as far as possible according to language, subject, and size, and are distinguished by an asterisk in the Catalogue. A few guide-books, which were omitted from the Author-Catalogue, have been entered in full in the Topographical Index. An Appendix of recent additions to the Library brings the work up to date.

Special attention is drawn to the Topographical Index, which has been compiled with a view to assist members in investigating the Archæology of any special district at home or abroad. The titles of the works have been cut down as far as possible, but will be found in full in the Author-Catalogue under the italicised word. The entries in the Index are grouped under the various Countries, and are subdivided, where practicable, under Counties, Departments, and Subjects, e.g.:—

EGYPT.

Naukratis. Coins. B. V. Head.

ENGLAND.

Hertfordshire.

History. R. Clutterbuck.

For rendering more serviceable a future edition of this Index, the Council relies on contributions from the members of the Institute of works, periodicals, and papers of archæological and topographical interest, and would be grateful for any help from the members in supplying works from the districts in which they reside.

In the general arrangement of the Library, also in the compilation of this work, and its supervision in passing through the press, the Compiler has to acknowledge, with thanks, the valuable assistance of Mr. E. Wyndham Hulme, and of Mr. Hellier Gosselin, whose experiences have been most useful to him, and whose assistance has been so readily accorded in the furtherance of the volume.

E. C. HULME, Hon. Librarian.
